

Social Movements and Cultural Imaginaries of the Arab Spring

Workshop held at the Berlin Graduate School Muslim Cultures and Societies

Date:

Monday, May 14, 2012; 15:30 pm – 19:30 pm

Organiser:

Paul Amar (Associate Professor, University of California, Santa Barbara);
Visiting Fellow at BGS MCS

Participants:

doctoral students of the BGS MCS,
students and fellows from associated institutions

Readings:

At least one week before each workshop, one article, chapter or paper for each guest will be circulated. Reading these papers BEFORE the workshop is mandatory.

Format:

Guests will not present their papers but will only offer a five-minute overview. Then dialogue and questions will commence. This is not a “panel” format, but a true dialogic workshop format.

Credit Points:

0,5 CP

Application:

The deadline for application is April 30 (via e-mail to office@bgsmcs.fu-berlin.de)

Contact:

For any queries or questions, please contact amar@global.ucsb.edu

(for workshop programme s. below)

Workshop Programme:

15:30 PART ONE: Islamic Social Movements and Challenges to the State

Jillian Schwedler, Professor of Political Science, City University of New York, Hunter College
 “The Kingdom of Jordan in the Arab Spring: Social Movements, New Islamists, and the Spatial Geography of Protests”

Isabelle Werenfels, German Institute for International and Security Affairs (SWP) (t. b. c.)

Agnieszka Paczynska, Professor of Political Science and Global Studies, School for Conflict Analysis and Resolution, George Mason University
 “Comparing the Nexus of Religion and New Uprisings: Poland, Kirgizstan, Egypt”

17:15 PART TWO: Depicting the Gender and Class of New Revolutions and Military Occupations

Gil Hochberg, Associate Professor of Comparative Literature and Women’s Studies, UCLA
 “Chic Point: Queering Israeli and Palestinian Militarized Masculinity in Experimental Cinema”

Paul Amar, Associate Professor of Global & International Studies, UCSB
 “New Media Clips and Graffiti Art of the Egyptian Revolution: Reframing the Gender and Class Politics of the Muslim Brothers and the Military Regime”

18:30 Individual Consultations, one-on-one, between graduate students and visiting professors

15-minutes each. Please reserve time-slot in advance.

19:30 Go out for drinks or coffee together