

A HISTORY OF Jeddah

The Gate to Mecca in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries

Ulrike Freitag

© Cambridge University Press, 2020

BOOK TALK

In cooperation with:

A HISTORY OF JEDDAH The Gate to Mecca in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries

with the author

Prof. Dr. Ulrike Freitag

Director, Leibniz-Zentrum Moderner Orient (ZMO)

moderated by

Wolf R. Schwippert

Board Member, DAFG

Tuesday, 26 October 2021

7 pm (CEST)

Online via Zoom | Language: English

Known as the 'Gate to Mecca' or 'Bride of the Red Sea', Jeddah has been a gateway for pilgrims travelling to Mecca and Medina and a station for international trade routes between the Indian Ocean and the Mediterranean for centuries. In conversation with DAFG Board Member Wolf R. Schwippert, Prof. Dr. Ulrike Freitag presents her critically acclaimed biography of the city under the title A History of Jeddah – The Gate to Mecca in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries (Cambridge University Press, 2020). Seen from the perspective of its diverse population, the study traces its urban history and cosmopolitanism from the late Ottoman period to its present-day claim to multiculturalism, within the conservative environment of the Arabian Peninsula.

Ulrike Freitag is Director of Leibniz-Zentrum Moderner Orient and Professor of Islamic Studies at Freie Universität Berlin. She is author of Indian Ocean Migrants and State Formation in Hadhramaut (2002) and co-editor of several volumes on urban history, including Urban Violence in the Middle East (2015).

(Photo credit: Samuli Schielke)

The online event will be conducted as a webinar using the software "Zoom". The number of participants is limited. Please register until 26 October 2021 here: <https://tinyurl.com/4c38p3sb>. After registering you will receive the corresponding access data.

Information on data protection: The German-Arab Friendship Association (DAFG) uses the software "Zoom" for this online event (<https://zoom.us>). The technical infrastructure required for this runs via Zoom's servers in the USA. DAFG itself does not store any data of participants in the software; they must join the online event themselves with the access data provided by DAFG. The use of the audio and webcam connection and chat function is voluntary and the participants must agree themselves if they are given the floor by the moderator. The DAFG reserves the right to save a recording of the online event for internal purposes.

